Vadim Tuzov

Vadim Tuzov is a Ukraine-born sculptor working in Ireland. His childhood surroundings cemented a lifelong fascination with animal life which he carries into his work. Tuzov's bronze wildlife sculptures conceptualise animal life through the artist's bold and stylised imagination. He undertakes the entire bronze sculpting process from start to finish, working from a piece of clay to the patination. As such, he guides his animal sculptures through each stage of their life. He practises his craftsmanship with meticulous care and expertise. Tuzov captures the essence of animal anatomy, strength and subjecthood creating dynamic 'living' sculptures.
